

Make plans to join the tenth biennial Getting in Touch with Literacy conference from December 7 to 10, 2011 in Louisville, Kentucky. Join top experts in our field and come learn about the latest in research and practical applications for literacy instruction for children and adults with visual impairments. Keep checking the website--- registration will begin in late summer.

www.gettingintouchwithliteracy.org